

Employment: Job Interview

The Interview:

A: Good morning, I am here for my interview.

B: Hello, nice to meet you. I'm Mr. Smith. So, what got you interested in our company?

A: I believe that your company's the best in touristic business, and since my studies revolve around tourism I'll be so honored to work in such place.

B: So why don't you tell me why you are interested in changing positions?

A: Unfortunately, our company is shutting down due to the economy.

B: What would you consider your strengths?

A: I am probably best at speaking languages for I can speak more than five of them fluently.

B: What is your biggest weakness?

A: I tend to get bored easily and so love to keep myself challenged.

B: We have a position where that could work out well.

A: May I ask you how much this position pays per year?

B: This job pays sixty-five thousand dollars per year.

A: What type of vacation time do we get?

B: You get 3 weeks paid vacation that you may use as you wish.

A: This is wonderful! I'll be so happy to join your corporation.
